

Nature conspires
    chaos and we devise
    a picture to suffice, & then it doesn't,
    at the last breath
    not crazy enough; so we tease out the next,
    which passes for what
    there is to know.
        (Pretend,
        for promotion,
        else.)
